INTRODUCTION

To the Members and Friends of Grace Church, of the United Brethren in Christ.

Greeting:

The usefulness and convenience of a hand book and Church Directory are too well known to need any apology for the issue now before you. We cheerfully present you with this copy, trusting herewith to give you excellent facilities for a more intimate acquaintance with the membership and activities of OUR CHURCH and its various organizations. May it lead to a closer acquaintance with each other, and challenge us to engage more frequently in worship, prayer and in visiting one another. Do not forget the indifferent, the needy, the sick, the aged and unfortunate—when you hear of such, look up their address in the DIRECTORY and visit them, and report them to the pastor. Report all strangers moving into the community. If you or any of your family are sick or need the services of the Pastor, send for him as you would for the doctor, or as you notify your lodge.

Do this in the spirit of "Christian Brotherhood."

"My God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in Glory by Christ Jesus."

"I am only one, but I am one ;

I cannot do everything, but I can do Something :

What I can do I ought to do.

And by the Grace of God I will do.

Very sincerely,

West South, near Hanover Street

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Of Grace Church of the United Brethren in Christ Carlisle, Pennsylvania

The history of United Brethrenism in this city dates back to the year 1843. Christian Hershe, a local United Brethren preacher and a retired farmer of Lancaster County, purchased several farms along the Harrisburg turnpike, about one and one-half miles east of Carlisle. He settled there with his relatives and built a substantial brick church which was a short distance south of the pike on the Letort Spring. This church was one story in height and had a large basement that was used for school purposes. The church proper, however, was used for divine services, the only furnishings being a stand and a few benches. At this time (1913) it is called Harmony Hall and is used solely as a school house. Hershe's Charge, of which this Hershe's church was a branch, was served from 1843 to 1845 by Rev. Jacob S. Kesler, and from 1845 to 1847 by Rev. George Miller. It was during revivals held here by these two men that many Carlisle people attended and were happily converted. Thus, the seed of United Brethrenism was sown in Carlisle.

The first United Brethren minister entering this city to do service for the Master was Rev. Zephaniah Augustus Colestock, D. D.

The first class in Carlisle was organized with about thirty converts in the spring of 1847 by Bro. Colestock. They held cottage prayer meetings at the homes of Abraham Zimmerman on West South street, Mr. and Mrs.

5000 Sq. Ft. of 5 and 10c Bargains at TRIMMER'S

Shambaugh at the corner of Pitt street and Dickinson avenue, and Jacob Abrahims on North Hanover street, opposite Metzger College.

During 1848 little progress was made, but in 1849 the work was again taken up by Rev. John Dickson, D. D., who at that time was serving Hershe's Charge.

Soon after Bro. Dickson took up the work a Board of Trustees, consisting of Brothers David Mundorf, Peter Lechler, Abraham Zimmerman, Michael Wise, George Sponsler, Andrew Zeigler and Jacob Abrahims, was elected. It was their intention to secure a lot and erect a house of worship. This, however, they did not do, but rented the second floor of the old school house on West Pomfret street between Pitt and Hanover streets. After using this a short time, the place of worship was changed to the second floor of Marion Hall on West High street in the Eby (now Ogilby) property, where at intervals services and Quarterly Conferences were conducted by Reverends Dickson and Colestock.

About this time (1850) a Western fever become epidemic in this section, and many of the families in good temporal circumstances sold out and went to Muscatine, and other points in Iowa. The loss, however, was the making of our church in the West. Those remaining in Carlisle joined other denominations, but continued to remember the pastorate of Reverends Colestock and Dickson.

For a period of several decades no distinct denominational work was accomplished, although there were frequent removals to Carlisle of United Brethren from other points. These believed that the Master had a work for them to do here and often suggested that a church be founded. It remained, however, for Rev. W. J. Beamer to put these desires into tangible form.

In 1891 at a meeting of the Misisonary Board of the Pennsylvania Conference it was suggested that a subcommittee be appointed to view the situation relative to the establishing of a mission at Carlisle. This committee was appointed and consisted of Rev. W. J. Beamer, Rev. C. T. Stearn and Mr. R. M. Jones. The situation was reported favorable.

At the annual convention of the Young People's Christian Union of the Pennsylvania Conference, which occurred February 25-March 2, 1891, in the Otterbein U. B. Church, of Harrisburg, it was unanimously decided upon motion of Rev. I. H. Albright, Ph. D., to undertake some definite mission work in Carlisle and as a Union to ask the conference to send a missionary there, who should be supported by them; so, at the annual conference held at York, Pa., in February, 1892, Rev. W. J. Beamer, Presiding Elder of Chambersburg District, recommended in his annual report the formation of a mission in Carlisle. This report was adopted, and the Y. P. C. U. pledged $500.00 to the Conference Missionary Committee for the pastor's salary. Rev. D. Speck was then appointed to the mission in this city.

In May, 1892, the present site on West South street, which has a frontage of one hundred feet and a depth of two hundred and forty feet, was bought of the W. S. Woods Estate at a cost of $2,200.00, of which $100.00 was donated by that estate. The pastor effected a loan of the purchase money at 6 per cent. interest and solicited during the year the sum of $546.06 in paid, and $423.00 in unpaid subscriptions. Later, in compliance with an order of the Board of Trustees, he sold to Mr. Harry G. Beetem one hundred feet square of ground at the rear of the lot for $500.00. In connection with his work in Carlisle, Rev. Speck also served Newville and West Hill appointments every alternate Sabbath.

At the annual conference at the Otterbein U. B. Church, Harrisburg, February 22-27, 1893, Rev. William J. Houck was appointed to this charge to establish a church.

On March 11, 1893, Rev. Houck, with his family, came to Carlisle from Newburg and occupied house No. 9 East South street. He immediately set about laying a strong foundation for our church work and during his pastorate of seven years built a substantial brick church and parsonage. He also established a church at Greason, five miles west of Carlisle.

The Quarterly Conference, held April 17, 1893, elected Rev. W. J. Houck and Bro. Wm. H. Lehman trustees. On June 16th, the Board, which consisted of Rev. W. J. Beamer, Presiding Elder; Rev. W. J. Houck, R. M. Jones, Charles Seifert and Wm. H. Lehman, reorganized by the election of Rev. Beamer, President; Rev. Houck, Secretary, and Mr. Jones, Treasurer.

The first prayer meeting was held at the home of the pastor, No. 9 East South street, on April 19, 1893, with the following persons present: Elmer A. Yeatts, Sue Eckman, Flo Mower, Mary Staver, several neighbors, and pastor Houck's family.

On May 10, 1893, the prayer meeting service was conducted by Rev. A. R. Ayres, a class of seventeen persons was organized, and Elmer A. Yeatts duly elected class leader.

The Trustees at a meeting on July 31, 1893, decided to proceed with the erection of a house of worship, since the subscription list had assumed safe proportions. In accordance with the instruction of the annual conference, the abandoned churches at Newville and Churchtown were to be razed and their material used in the construction of the church here. Architectural plans submitted by Presiding Elder Beamer were adopted.

Excavating was started August 14, 1893, and on Sunday, September 17, the corner stone was laid by Rev. J. W. Kiracofe, assisted by Rev. Houck and others.

The church was completed at a cost of $8,000.00 and dedicated to the worship of God January 14, 1894, by Bishop E. B. Kephart, D. D., LL. D. The building is of brick, and has a total seating capacity of five hundred. The name given it was suggested by Pastor Houck, "Grace United Brethren Church of Carlisle, Pennsylvania."

On September 4, 1894, it was decided to build a parsonage adjoining the church, and the plan submitted for the building by Presiding Elder J. P. Anthony was adopted by the Trustees. A loan was effected, a contract for building made, and the pastor delegated to have full oversight of the work. The parsonage is a two-story brick house with slate roof, contains eight rooms, and has furnace, bath, and modern conveniences. The total cost was $2,314.00.

The Fifth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Y. P. C. U. was held in Grace Church, June 6-7, 1895. There were in attendance at this convention thirty-six ministers and sixty-eight delegates.

The one hundred and seventh annual session of the Pennsylvania Conference was held in Grace Church, March 4-9, 1896, Bishop N. Castle, D. D., presiding. There were present at this session sixty-five preachers and forty-nine lay delegates and also twenty-four visiting ministers.

At the annual conference held at Shiremanstown, Pa., in 1899, the delegate, Elmer E. Sellers, Esq., by instruction of the Official Board, requested a discontinuance of missionary appropriation. Such appropriations had amounted at this time to $2,475.00, while the church during the same period had paid into the missionary treasury $411.99. From this date all the church work received a new impetus, and a fresh zeal was inculcated in the hearts of all.

At the annual conference at Boiling Springs in 1900, Rev. Houck was transferred to Franklin Street Church, Baltimore, and Rev. Joseph Daugherty was appointed to this place, and moved here with his family from Franklin street, Baltimore, Md., March, 1900. Rev. Daugherty had a profitable pastorate of three years and eight months in which he received 116 persons into church fellowship, and in the first three years of his pastorate he reduced the parsonage debt from $1600.00 to $850.00. Then, in a special effort during the month of May of his last year on the charge, a subscription fund of $1,450.00 was pledged to pay off the balance of the parsonage debt of $850.00, and to pay the painting and recarpeting of the church of $600.00, most of which was collected before his transfer to York, Pa.

Special services on Sunday, May 31, 1903, were held to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the organizing of the church's first class. Bishop J. S. Mills, D. D., LL. D., delivered the sermons, and Rev. W. H. Washinger, D. D., Presiding Elder, assisted in securing the above mentioned subscription of $1,450.00. The event was characterized by a spiritual inspiration and a renewed loyalty to the church.

In the autumn of 1903 it was decided to install a new system of heating for the church. Steam was selected, and a plant was put in at a cost of $600.00.

It was in this year that the time of assembly of the annual conference was changed from March to October.

The first fall conference transferred Rev. Daugherty to York, Pa., after a successful pastorate here of three years and eight months.

Rev. John E. Kleffman, who was appointed to Carlisle at the sessions of Annual Conference held in Chambersburg, October 14-19, 1903, moved into the parsonage the latter part of the same month. During his pastorate here the church work was carried on with success. The steam plant debt, with other indebtedness, amounting in all to $1,700.00, was liquidated, and the notes and judgments were cancelled and burned at a special meeting of the Official Board, held October 17, 1907, this being the first occasion in the church's history that she was entirely free of financial encumbrance. There were various improvements of church property both in the parsonage and the church building that added much to the comfort of the minister's family and the progressive spirit in the congregational life. Among the improvements were new furniture for the altar and choir platform. One of the pleasing features of his work was the magnificent gift of $2,000.00 to the church from a friend of the same. This is being held in reserve for future improvements.

In the fall of 1907 Rev. Kleffman was appointed, after four years of untiring effort and faithfulness in our church work, to Red Lion, Pa., and was succeeded by Rev. A. B. Mower, who was transferred from Mt. Wolf, at the New Cumberland Conference, in 1907, and moved with his family to Carlisle in October of the same year, where he entered upon his work with intense earnestness that resulted in a revival of eleven weeks, sixty-eight conversions and seventy-five additions to the church, the first year of his pastorate. Rev. Mower was eager for success, he was a good pastor and had the confidence and co-operation of all his people, but, prior to his coming to Carlisle, he had suffered a long seige of typhoid fever, and in his indefatigable labors, which were more than his physical strength could endure, he became nervously prostrated near the end of the third year of his pastorate, but was reappointed by the Conference for the fourth year, but did not sufficiently recover to continue the work, and resigned the charge in March, 1911, after a commendable pastorate in which one hundred and sixty-four persons were received into church fellowship, and the building fund increased from $2,000.00 to $4,000.00.

Immediately after his resignation was tendered the Conference Superintendent, Rev. Wm. H. Washinger, D. D., of Chambersburg, appointed the Rev. John I. Green, a graduate of the Westminster Theological Seminary, to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Mower, which was very ably filled to the satisfaction of the congregation until the close of the Conference year in October, 1911, at which time the Rev. Green was transferred to Duncannon, Pa., and Rev. Josiah P. Koontz, the present incumbent, pastor of our Grace Church, West Fairview, Pa., from 1907-'11, was appointed his successor, who after a most successful year was reappointed to the charge by the one hundred and twenty-third annual conference at Frederick, Md., October, 1912.
